

West Hartford Community of Concern Presents

Stay Connected

Monday, March 14th 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Conard High School Cafeteria

Concerned about:

- Kids' time spent online, texting, chatting?
- Popular websites and apps, how to monitor, set boundaries, regulate use, dangers and risks?

Looking for positive ways to approach, connect and support kids in their use of technology?

Join us for a panel discussion on the complexities of parenting in the age of technology

Panelists:

Moderator: Joanna Curry-Sartori, Community Therapist,
The Bridge Family Center

Dr. Andrew Morrow, WHPS Assistant Superintendent for Administration

Scott Driscoll – President, Internet Safety Concepts

Shayna Ull, LMSW, Jewish Family Services

Officer Leo Negrón, West Hartford Police Department

Students from Conard and Hall HS “Lead by Example”

Questions? Please contact us at: ConardCOC@gmail.com