Donate Blood
In Honor of
Seamus Turco

Seamus Turco, a twenty-year-old West Hartford resident, recently finished treatment for lymphoblastic lymphoma, a blood cancer. From December 2014 to April 2017, Seamus received multiple blood transfusions as a part of his treatment.

Seamus, his twin brother, Gabe, and their twin friends Abby and Kate Gosselin, are hosting this blood drive to help ensure blood is available for patients in need.

As twins, Seamus, Gabe, Abby and Kate encourage all donors to bring a "twin" with them to donate blood in honor of Seamus.
