Audience Expectations

Thank you for joining us! We ask that you please note the following to not only enhance your experience, but the experience of your fellow audience members. We hope you enjoy the show!

Our show will have a fifteen minute intermission for your planning purposes. If you need to leave during the show, we ask that you please wait until a moment with applause.

The use of cell phones during the show is strictly prohibited. This includes recording audio and/or video, as well as any type of photography, flash or otherwise.

If you intend to have a small child sit in your lap during the production, please be mindful of sight lines for the audience member behind you to ensure they are able to see our show!
